

MARCIE CRAMER PRESENTS:
EMBRACING THE SHADOW: WHEN YOU ARE WILLING TO SEE WHAT IS IN YOUR UNCONSCIOUS AND HOW IT IMPACTS YOUR LIFE

The advanced workshop takes everything you have learned in the Intro workshop (a prerequisite to this one) to at an entirely different, phenomenal level. This is a deeper introduction to discovering:

- 1. How your unconscious impacts, controls and influences your life.
- 2. Why your struggle with relationships continue to repeat despite how hard to try to better, choose differently, or act consciously
- 3. We will explore in detail the many facets of the unconscious including

*The Shadow Self
The Missing self
The Lost Self
And The Denied Self.*

These are the unconscious parts of our brain and experiences that we cannot see in ourselves (but others can easily). They are hidden from us, buried in our unconscious to help us survive our childhood. However, now they surface as our patterns and interfere with ALL your relationships, your day to day life, your work, your parenting, your children and your partner.

You cannot change or heal what you don't know is there, so we will be bringing them into the light so that we can take the next step in our healing process out of the shadow.

At the end of the day, you will have so many more answers to why and where you core wounds are, why you struggle in relationships and of course most importantly what to do about it.
